Mark H. Rooney is the world's most dangerous half-Japanese/half-Scottish solo improvisational taiko artist – a dynamic form of full-body drumming based in Japanese tradition. He has performed with a number of groups in Japan as well as performing widely in Europe and the United States as a touring member of Taikoza. He is a dynamic and talented performer, but his true passion lies with teaching taiko. Mark also teaches weekly classes and performs for a wide variety of audiences ranging from school children to diplomats. Grab your pens and pencils to drum along with him!
